V26: Please describe the differences in level of education between the partner university and the HvA

Level of education at the HvA is much higher ,

Elaborate on your answer

I think the level of education of all Erasmus courses are lower than other universities. I think that if we could follow a real class (like the Greeks do) the level of education will be higher than the Erasmus courses, but not higher than HvA.

There was a Buddy program but we didn't get any buddy. For sports, counselling services and accommodation services I have no clue, because i didn't need any of it.

PAGINA 8

V31: Please describe two cultural differences you experienced during your stay abroad.Experience 1:

The Greek people live in the moment, and don't think a lot about the future (as you can see, the economic crisis) and the Dutch think too much about the future and should live more in the moment.

V32: Experience 2:

The Greek people are more relaxed, (xalara --> that's what it's called in Thessaloniki) less organised and happy with less. They work really hard and they love their history. Dutch people on the other hand are more stressed, also way more organised and always afraid of not getting enough and being treated fair. Also we're a multicultural society so we don't care much about our history and heritage.

PAGINA 9

V33: How did you find accommodation? Other, please name Airbnb

V34: How much did you pay for this accommodation on a monthly basis? 200-400 euros

V35: Would you recommend this accommodation to other students going to this partner university? Yes,
Please explain your answer
It's a really nice apartment. The host was really nice, and she was there directly when you needed her. The location is maybe not perfect, but taxi is really cheap, bus is also cheap and easy to take and also it's healthy to walk a lot.

PAGINA 10

V36: What are your tips for other students going here (e.g. housing, transport, cost of living, useful contacts etc.)?

I found my accommodation on airbnb, but i've heard that it really easy to get an accommodation there. On facebook there is a special page made for erasmus students in Thessaloniki. You should apply for that and there it is also really easy to find housing.

The city is really easy, you have three big streets, and in every streets there are busses. It is so easy to go from one place to the other. The taxis are really cheap.

Food in a restaurant is really cheap. It was always around 7-8 euros per person including wine, and then you were really full. Food in supermarkets on the other hand is way more expensive. Sometimes it's cheaper to go out for dinner. But if you make nice friends you can also choose to cook together, that's also cheaper. Thessaloniki is a city with a lot of coffeebars, bars, restautants. It's so nice. The city is also full with people from our age. around 18-28.

The people in Thessaloniki are really nice, they are really interested and they like to give you free food and drinks.

The students from ESN are really helpfull, I could also ask them something and they replied really fast also the erasmus office was really helpfull.

V37: Write a short statement about the host university to inform other students.

The university is really ugly, old and dirty, but it really has his charms. You are more happy with what you have here in the Netherlands, but it is a nice experience. The campus is in the middle of nowhere, but there are busses going every 15 minutes. It is possible to smoke inside the school there are also dogs walking around the campus. But give it a chance. It is really not that bad and maybe nice to see how other people experience their university.

V38: If you could do it all over again, what would you do differently?

NOTHING. It was really nice, and I miss it soooo much. Maybe I would go a little bit earlier and save more money before I got there. It is really easy to travel around in Greece and see more of the culture, but you should have some money.

---

V39: Do you have any other remarks?

GO TO GREECE! Greece is an awesome country. The people are kind, the food is delicious, the weather is good, and the city (thessaloniki) is really nice, there is so much to do and to see.
